What Is Baby Saying?

For each picture on the Baby’s Talking page, circle below whether the baby is saying “I want to be near you” or “I need something to be different.”

Picture #1: I want to be near you  I need something to be different
Picture #2: I want to be near you  I need something to be different
Picture #3: I want to be near you  I need something to be different
Picture #4: I want to be near you  I need something to be different
Picture #5: I want to be near you  I need something to be different
Picture #6: I want to be near you  I need something to be different

We hope you have discovered a few secrets today to help you better understand your baby.

What is one thing you will try to do with your baby, based on what you learned today? Write your answer below.
___________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________

Did you know?

- You can read to very young babies, as young as a few weeks old
- Talking to babies, singing to babies and reading to babies helps them become better readers
- Reading to babies helps them with listening and memory skills